THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE OF THE Independent Order of Odd Fellows OFFICE OF THE GRAND SIRE

THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE of the INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS OFFICE OF THE GRAND SIRE

To the Officers and members of All Grand and Subordinate Bodies of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

On October 24, 1945, Poland and the Soviet Union signed the United Nations Charter. On the same day the Secretary of State of the United States of America issued a protocol of deposit of ratification declaring that a sufficient number of nations had ratified the Charter and the United Nations Security organization for World Peace became an accomplished fact. The United Nations Charter is now the basic law of the world nations loving peace more than selfish power.

On January 15, 1946, Odd Fellowship will observe the one hundred and sixty-fourth anniversary of the Birthday of Thomas Wildey, founder of our Order on the North American continent. He it was who envisioned a great world-wide organization dedicated to one objective—the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man. The laws of The Sovereign Grand Lodge provide that the anniversary of his birth shall be observed throughout the world of Odd Fellowship each year.

Remembering the inspiring faith of Thomas Wildey in the power of Odd Fellowship to benefit humanity, no more fitting observance of the anniversary of his birth could be held this year than to devote a time to a concerted effort to spread understanding of the new United Nations Charter among our own membership and in similar fashion to begin the great task of popular education regarding this new Charter, designed to provide for the orderly processes of law and order and the establishment of a basis for world peace and security.

Therefore, in obedience to the laws of The Sovereign Grand Lodge and the usages and customs of the Order, I, D. D. Monroe, Grand Sire of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, in commemoration of the One Hundred and Sixty-fourth anniversary of the birth of Thomas Wildey, do hereby PROCLAIM the week of January 13th to 19th, 1946, United Nations Charter Week in Odd Fellowship. And I do hereby call upon all Lodges, Encampments, and Clubs for the observance of that week by holding consolidated meetings, or sponsoring open meetings, with notable addresses, setting forth the purposes of Odd Fellowship as declared by its founder, and the purposes of the United Nations Charter, and a study of its provisions and implications. Such an observance will offer an opportunity to lodges everywhere unitedly to assist to make the new Charter—with its admitted imperfections which time should correct—an effective instrument of free peoples.

Recalling the zeal and untiring efforts of Thomas Wildey to increase the influence of Odd Fellowship, what greater tribute can our lodges place upon the altar of his memory than to devote the week of his birth this coming year to the sponsorship of educational processes in the advancement of world peace and fraternity?

The United Nations Charter will never work unless it is supported by a preponderance of public opinion throughout the world. Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and others must help make it work if it is to preserve peace and security. A knowledge of its purposes and plan is necessary. From your public library get a copy of the Charter. Read the preamble and the purposes outlined in Chapter 1. Note how closely the wording expresses the basic aims and declared purposes of Odd Fellowship. Enlist the services of prominent speakers and international students of your communities. Plan your arrangements in your own way that every member of our order and every citizen of every community in which our lodges exist shall be made sensible of a great instrument of international promise.

As our Order throughout the world threw her every resource, manpower, material and spiritual behind the Allied powers to the winning of the war, now our highest duty to our war dead, our highest instincts and the dictates of unselfish service demand that we likewise throw our every resource, material and spiritual, into the winning of an enduring peace. Peace must not only be prayed for. Peace must be worked for and, if necessary, fought for! The spirit of Thomas Wildey should inspire all of us to the fitting observance of United Nations Charter Week in Odd Fellowship.

Because I believe that Odd Fellowship has in the great Charter an opportunity unsurpassed throughout our one hundred and twenty-seven years, I enjoin upon our lodges everywhere to make the week of January 13th to 19th a great week for Odd Fellowship and for public service. Thus we can fittingly venerate the founder of this great international fraternity.

Done at Clayton, New Mexico, United States of America, this 12th day of November, Anno Domini nineteen hundred forty-five, in the one hundred and twenty-seventh year of Odd Fellowship.

D. D. MONROE, Grand Sire.

Attest:

E. G. LUDVIGSEN, Grand, Secretary.

THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE of the INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS OFFICE OF THE GRAND SIRE

Whereas, The Sovereign Grand Lodge at its Sessions of 1940 and 1941 authorized the recodification of our general laws and a special committee was appointed with broad powers looking to the recompilation and simplification of the general laws of the Order, and

Whereas, the said special committee made its report to The Sovereign Grand Lodge at its Session in 1943 (Report No. 4 Page 709, Proceedings 1943) and presented a new code of laws, which was adopted by The Sovereign Grand Lodge, but held in abeyance pending the printing and distribution thereof; and,

Whereas, such a code of general laws with the authorized amendments thereto has now been printed and distributed.

Therefore, I, D. D. Monroe, Grande Sire, by virtue of the powers in me vested, and in compliance with the action of The Sovereign Grand Lodge set forth in Report 39 page 745 Journal of Proceedings 1943 and Report 23 page 1146 Proceedings 1944, do hereby declare the "Code of General Laws of the I.O.O.F., 1944," in full force and effect from and after the 1st day of October, 1945, after which date all previous publications of laws shall be considered no longer in effect.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of The Sovereign Grand Lodge to be hereunto affixed. Done at the City of Clayton, State of New Mexico, United States of America, this 12th day of November, A.D., 1945, in the one hundred and twenty-seventh year of our Order.

D. D. MONROE, Grand Sire.

Attest:

E. G. LUDVIGSEN, Grand Secretary.

What the Lodges Are Doing

Grand Master's Christmas Message

The past six Yuletide seasons have been celebrated under the clouds of war and world wide disturbances. This year we celebrate our Yuletide season under more peaceful conditions and it is indeed a time when we can really say Glory to God in the Highest, Peace on Earth and Good-will to All Men.

This is my sincere Yuletide wish to members of all branches of the I.O.O.F. Order, wherever dispersed they may be.

To wish you every happiness
The season can bestow;
To wish you year-long gladness
Wherever you may go;
To wish life's greatest pleasures
And every joy and cheer—
In short: A Merry Christmas
And A Very Glad New Year.

Fraternally submitted,
CHAS. FOX, Grand Master.

Elect New Officers Alberta Lodge No. 1

The officers who will preside over the destinies of Alberta No. 1, Calgary, in its 61st year have been elected. The incoming Noble Grand will be Bro. H. N. (Herb) McKay, imported several years ago from Prince Albert, Sask. From the form shown while occupying the chair in the absence of the present N.G., it is quite safe to assume that he is not lacking in ability. The new Vice Grand, Bro. H. R. (Bob) Hayes, ex-R.C.A.F., having completed his share of bombing missions over Germany, should not have much difficulty as boss of the east end of the hall. Perhaps it is just a coincidence that Bob came here with his family from Gull Lake, Sask., when just a young shaver. Except for maintaining a record for unbiased and accurate reporting, the Mother Lodge of Alberta could well have omitted to mention publicly just where its officers hailed from.

Those hardy perennials, Fin. Sec. Herb Thorne, Treas. Bob Stabback and Rec. Sec. Wilf McGaw, although not quite as dapper as when they first aspired to office, were considered serviceable enough to last another term. Having started out to mention where the officers first saw the light of days, the job might as well be finished. Herb is a product of Vancouver Island, Bob from Lindsay, Ont., via the Blackfoot Reserve, and Wilf left the Michigan Soo to get away from too much herring, huckleberries and the buck-saw.

This lodge was saddened by the passing of two of its members. A brother known throughout the province, Bro. J. L. (Doc) Chapelle, was laid to rest on Nov. 19. It would be hard to recall a degree in either this lodge or the local Encampment when Doc was not either degree captain or had an important part. Having committed to memory practically the entire subordinate and Encampment rituals, his services were always sought when there were degrees to be conferred. That he will be missed by his lodge is evident and his many friends will feel their loss keenly.

Bro. John Bewick, plumbing inspector for the city until his retirement, died on Nov. 28. His health prevented active participation in lodge work of late years and he was not so well known. He loved his little joke and could see humor in whatever went on around him.

To the bereaved widows and their families, the sincerest sympathy is extended.

This lodge was called upon to perform a pleasant duty. A letter from Hamilton, Ont., (with the mountain), arrived with the information that a Bro. J. Wallace, of Unity No. 47, would be in Calgary between the morning and night trains and his Hamilton friends suggested that No. 1 might make his stay as pleasant as possible. How he fared from the time a member met him at the morning train until he was safely aboard his west-bound sleeper will be Bro. Wallace's story. You see, we have a member of No. 1, Bro. Glen Morrison, in Hamilton. In case he has been boasting a bit about the west, it would not have been fair to let him down.

Should the usual news column from Hillhurst No. 46 fail to appear it will be owing to the illness of the correspondent, Bro. Fred Hodges. At the moment, Fred is in the Holy Cross hospital and it is the sincerest wish of No. 1 that he will soon be out and around. When he does, how No. 1 got front page position in last month's Odd Fellow will require an answer. Really hitting when a fellow is down.

A plan of inter-lodge visitations in which the local lodges and Bow Valley No. 89, Cochrane, will pay one fraternal visit each month has been arranged. By the end of February each lodge will have visited a neighbor at least once. One of the highlights was the fraternal call by Bow Valley to St. George No. 39 with fourteen candidates for the initiatory degree. The Bow Valley is the "white-haired boy" of Dist. No. 11.

Arrangements have been completed whereby local lodges will make Sunday visits to Keith (T.B.) Sanitorium. Sundays will be assigned to each lodge, starting shortly. Should lodges have members or readers' relatives in that institution, please advise the Calgary Service Board or the secretary of any lodge and their names will be added to the list of those to be visited. This information will assist.

This lodge should like to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and (if you cannot attend the big New Year's dance at the Temple where it can be done personally), a peaceful and prosperous New Year.—C. W. McGaw.

District Meeting Held in Edmonton

The annual meeting of District Association No. 29 was held in the Odd Fellows' Temple, 95th Street, Edmonton, on Tuesday evening, November 6th., in conjunction with the regular meeting of Friendship Lodge No. 7. There was a fair representation of all lodges in the district, and under direction of Brother George Manson, D.D.G.M., the meeting got under way at 8:50 p.m. In a few well chosen words, the D.D.G.M. welcomed those present to the meeting, saying that he hoped it would be helpful and enjoyable to all.

The D.D.G.M. gave a verbal report of his activities since assuming office, and from the tone of his remarks, it would appear that Ryley Lodge No. 75 has been the most progressive in the district so far during the present year. The brothers of No. 75 really have the work of the Order at heart, and are to be commended for the progress they are making, and upon the manner in which they are doing their work.

The principal item of business was the election of a nominee for the District Deputy Grand Master-elect for the coming year. Bro. F. T. Covlin, of Namayo Lodge No. 47, was the selection of the meeting, and our heartiest congratulations go to Brother Covlin for having been selected for this high and important office. We know that Brother Covlin will make good, and that he is assured of the faithful support of every member in the district.

Brother G. S. McArthur of Friendship Lodge No. 7, was re-elected to the office of secretary-treasurer for his third term.

Accounts to the amount of $6.38 were approved for payment by the finance committee, consisting of Bros. Greenough, No. 7, Gerrie, No. 41, and Dickie, No. 47. The secretary-treasurer reported a substantial cash surplus on hand after these accounts were paid.

The meeting closed at 10 p.m., followed by a social hour of refreshments and fraternization, thus ending a very fine evening.—G.S.McA.

Good Reports at District Meeting

On October 22, the district meeting was held as planned at Ponoka. Bro. M. Granlund, D.D.G.M., presided. Visitors from Lacombe, Millet, and Wetaskiwin were present and a good lively meeting ensued.

A request from Clive lodge to join the district was received and consideration was given to it. Good reports were received from all lodges. Millet lodge especially is going ahead and intend to bring candidates to Ponoka No. 11 to be started on the adventurous journey very shortly.

After the business meeting was over a bounteous supper was served to all present. The geese were supplied by the nimrod brothers, Bros. Bird Headly and Norm Shorn, to whom we extend our thanks. By the looks of some of the brothers, not to mention any names, this food was very much enjoyed. The only thing was that geese, like some other fowl, have only two drumsticks. What a pity! for the D.D.G.M. and Bro. Sam were still looking for more when we last glanced in their direction. Thank you, Bros. Bird and Sam. Come again, and soon.—M.D.K.

Past Grand Masters At District Session

District meeting of District 117, consisting of Beiseker, Acme, Sunnyslope and Three Hills lodges, was held at Acme on December 4. There was a grand turnout of over 50 brothers. We were honored by having two Past Grand Masters present, P.G.M. Hames and P.G.M. Lount. D.D.G.M. H. Reddy, of Beiseker, presided.

After the meeting a lunch was served and a few of the brothers were called on for speeches.—W.S.

Mortgage Burning Program Highlight

Some two hundred members and friends attended the "burning of the mortgage" celebration held by Norwood No. 41 and Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 25, in the I.O.O.F. Temple, 112th Avenue and 95th Street, Edmonton, on Monday evening, November 26. Norwood No. 41 was also celebrating its 37th anniversary. Sisters E. Lepard and Esther Mitchell, P.N.G., and Brothers Christman, P.G., and A. D. Campbell, P.G.M., all members of the Trustee Board, received and welcomed the members and friends. The program opened with the singing of "O Canada."

Bro. A. Young, P.G.M., and chairman of the evening, in a few well-chosen words welcomed all the members of the order and their friends. The guests of honor were Sister L. Goodman, vice-president of the Rebekah Assembly; Bro. A. W. Northover, secretary of the Grand Lodge of Alberta; Sister M. Cundal, D.D.P. of Rebekah District No. 2; Bro. Manson, D.D.G.M. of District No. 29; Sister Greenslade, N.G. of Jewel No. 25, and Bro. W. Gerrie, N.G. of Norwood No. 41, and they were escorted to seats on the platform by brothers of Norwood No. 41 under the direction of Bro. Young.

Community singing was then enjoyed, led by Bro. A. Neumann with Sister H. Bomerlan at the piano. Good-will letters were read from Sister M. Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly; Bro. C. Fox, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Alberta; Sister L. Goodman, vice-president, and Sister Ada Day, secretary of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta; Major A. R. Dauncey, P.G.P.

A duet and encore were then given by Sisters C. Henderson and A. Peterson, P.N.G.'s of Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 26, and very much enjoyed. Sister Bomerlan accompanied at the piano.

Framed 25-year certificates were then presented to the following brothers of Norwood No. 41, by Bro. W. Gerrie, Noble Grand:

Donald B. Lake, Oct. 17, 1905; Henry L. C. Christman, Nov. 10, 1908; Charles Cusick, Nov. 10, 1908; Geo. W. Morgan, Henry McDonald, Alex D. Campbell and John Watt, Aug. 29, 1910; William Innes, Sept. 12, 1910; Jasper P. Johnston, May 26, 1913; Andrew Browning, Nov. 24, 1913; James Moir, and Arthur Young, March 2, 1914; Wm. Gerrie, Jan. 17, 1916; Cecil Miller, April 12, 1917; Adolf Neumann, Aug. 19, 1918; Henry A. Cochrane, Nov. 3, 1919; Orrin S. Martin, Feb. 10, 1910; Robert J. Ferguson, Nov. 12, 1906; William J. Williams, Nov. 10, 1915; R. E. Andrews, Oct. 9, 1919; Ernest W. Ballah, July 31, 1916; George T. Bell, June 26, 1913; Thomas Ferrier, April 28, 1912; C. Melvin Scott.

Sister W. Parker of Jewel No. 25, then favored us with a piano solo and encore, which were enjoyed very much by all.

Sister Goodman, vice-president, gave a very interesting address and extended greetings and congratulations from the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta. Sister L. McKechnie, P.N.G., of Maple Leaf No. 2, sang "Bless This House," which was very appropriate, and together with her encore, was very much enjoyed. Sis. Barnes, P.N.G., of Maple Leaf No. 2, accompanied Sis. McKechnie at the piano. Bro. A. W. Northover, secretary of the Grand Lodge, also addressed the members and extended greetings and congratulations from the Grand Lodge.

Then came the burning of the mortgage—the highlight of the evening. Bro. Gerrie, N.G. of Norwood No. 41, holding the mortgage, and Sister Greenslade, N.G. of Jewel No. 25, setting it alight. This was done to the hearty clapping of those present.

Bro. A. Young then asked Bro. A. Browning, Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Encampment, to escort Bro. Campbell, P.G.M., to the platform. Bro. Young then presented Bro. Campbell with a lifetime pen and pencil set in recognition of his services as secretary-treasurer of the Trustee Board for the last fourteen years. He congratulated Bro. Campbell on the splendid way in which he had carried out his work as secretary-treasurer during that time. Bro. Campbell thanked Bro. Young and the members of the two lodges, and gave a short resume of the workings of the Temple. He extended thanks to Sister Walsh, who first held the mortgage on the Temple; to the Rebekah Assembly who took over that mortgage; to the lodges in the surrounding districts who bought certificates; to the Harmony Club of Jewel No. 25, and to the members of Norwood No. 41 and Jewel No. 25, and those on the Trustee Board.

The program closed with a Sailor's Hornpipe dance given by Miss Ella Davidson, Miss Jessie Duguid and Miss Johnson who, earlier in the evening had favored us with the Irish Washerwoman dance. These were also very much enjoyed.

Refreshments were then served by the committee, after which a dance was enjoyed.

The committee in charge of arrangements were Brothers A. Young, C. Mitchell and H. McDonald, Sisters C. Neumann, J. Williams, H. Campbell and E. M. Penman.

Monday evening, November 29, 1945, will be long remembered by those present, especially by the brothers and sisters of Norwood No. 41 and Jewel No. 25.

Degrees Conferred At Special Meeting

It has been a long time since the activities of Crescent Lodge No. 81, Calgary, have been reported in the Alberta Odd Fellow.

First of all, we want to congratulate our new editor for the wonderful paper that he is putting out.

On November 22 we conferred the initiatory degree on Robert Stearne who, by the way, lives at Bragg Creek, 30 miles from Calgary. Our good brother Stan Waters, who also lives at Bragg Creek, brought the application into the lodge, and he reports he has some more applications coming up.

On November 29 we held a special meeting for the purpose of conferring the first and second degrees on Brother R. Stearne.

Our degree team is a little rusty, but by the time Brother Bill Webb has finished with them, the brothers will be back to the good old days when Crescent could really put on a degree.

Wishing everybody a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.—T.H.M.

Namayo Lodge 47 Names New Officers

At the regular meeting of Namayo Lodge No. 47, Edmonton, on Nov. 26, the following members were elected to office for the year 1946: Noble Grand, Bro. N. Caine; Vice Grand, Bro. M. Shepiro; Secretary, Bro. D. P. Ramsay; Treasurer, Bro. J. D. Potts.

Second degree was conferred on a candidate on December 10.

This being the last issue for the year 1945, I take this opportunity of extending to all best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.—D.P.R.

Yuletide Greetings from Grand Chaplain

To the Grand Jurisdiction of I.O.O.F. and Grand Lodge of Alberta in general, and especially a wee personal remembrance to all the lodges in particular of which I have been a member, namely, Bashaw, Millet, Donalds, Clive, Drumheller, Hardisty, and my present Three Hills lodge, I extend my sincerest and warmest Christmas Greetings; for in these respective lodges I have received an untold wealth of Friendship, Truth and Love, a triple chain that time cannot efface nor foes destroy.

As Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Alberta, I take this opportunity of emphasizing the fact that we need, as perhaps never before in the history of our illustrious order, the paramount necessity of exemplifying the symbolisms and cardinal principles that are contained in the dramas so vividly portrayed in each degree conferred.

While it is essential that we materially help in the tremendous task of reconstruction and rehabilitation, we must never cease nor falter in our glorious task of manifesting the spirit of our Master, Jesus Christ, who while born in Bethlehem's lowly manger, was destined to save the world from sin and strife—whose baby hands would one day wield a sceptre of Righteousness, Brotherhood, Peace and Good-will towards all mankind. These are the eternal values for which our fraternity must march forward to a greater realization in the coming year. If we grow in this respect then material blessings will be added in full measure, pressed down and running over.

May this Christmas and the dawning of the New Year of 1946 find you one and all sharing richly in the truest gifts of this festive season.

I. N. HUGHSON, Grand Chaplain,
Alberta I.O.O.F..

Degrees Conferred By Ponoka Lodge

Ponoka Lodge No. 11, Ponoka, is busy just now. They conferred the initiatory degree on three candidates on Nov. 12—one from Ponoka and two from Millet. A large number accompanied their candidates. The degree was conferred in the usual high standard of this lodge.

After the ceremony a lunch was served to members and visitors. The capable convener was Bro. Ivan Davies.

On Nov. 28, the lodge journeyed to Millet to confer the first degree. The Millet brothers served an old fashioned baked bean supper, to which the visitors surely did justice. Bro. A. Woodard, G.W., Bro. G. Sorenson, P.G.M., Bro. O. S. Martin, P.G.M., and Bro. S. McMasters, D.D.G.M., were also present and were accorded the honors.

Bro. A. Woodard gave a very instructive talk to the new candidates.

Brothers were present from Wetaskiwin and Millet, as well as Ponoka.

This lodge was grieved to hear of the passing of Bro. Geo. Robinson, P.D.G.M., of Wetaskiwin. This brother will be sadly missed in this district. The sympathy of this lodge goes out to his loving wife and bereaved family.—M.D.K.

25-Year Certificate on 90th Birthday

On Monday, October 15, Norwood Lodge No. 41, Edmonton, celebrated the 90th birthday anniversary of Bro. Joseph Adams, who has been an Odd Fellow since 1909, when he was initiated in Mt. Pleasant Lodge. Bro. Adams was presented with a 25-year certificate handsomely engraved and framed, by Bro. Alex Campbell, P.G.M., and this was, to say the least, very ably done. Bro. Campbell mentioned, among other things, the long service which Bro. Adams had given to Odd Fellowship, serving as Noble Grand several times, and of his willingness and ability to still be of service, even at his age. Bro. Adams responded with a few well chosen words, thanking the brothers cordially for their thoughtfulness and good wishes. Bro. Gilbert Sorenson also spoke a few words of good wishes for Bro. Adams, also Bro. Arthur Young, P.G.M., Bro. Martin, and Bro. Henry McDonald.

Several visitors were present including the Noble Grand and some members of Namayo Lodge No. 47, also the Noble Grand and several members of Friendship Lodge No. 7.

After presentation of the certificate, the balance of the evening was spent playing bingo and a quiz game, after which coffee and doughnuts were served, which seemed to be enjoyed by all.

We are looking forward to more entertainment during the winter months.

On Monday night, October 29, we welcomed back Brother Andy Browning, our financial secretary, and were very pleased to see him again, looking so well although not entirely recovered from his recent illness. However, the trip to Victoria seemed to be good medicine for him, and we trust that his health will steadily improve. During his absence Bro. Arthur Young, P.G.M., has been officiating as our financial secretary. A few words of welcome were given by Bro. Arthur Young and Bro. Wm. Gerrie, Noble Grand.

A very good meeting was held Monday, November 5, with considerable discussion. Also a new member was balloted on.—R.F.

Samaritans Stage Visit to High River

Well, Samaritans, the big "do" at High River has come and gone, and I think everyone enjoyed themselves. Sam. Morrison kept everyone in good spirits (not the liquid kind) on the trip down with his folding wind instrument. The caravan started out at 7:15 and after a stop in the town of Okotoks to get gas or something, we finally wound up in High River. I think Sam. Palfrey and Greer must have a little of the monkey tribe in them as immediately on getting into the bus they climbed up on the luggage compartment at the back and hooted and chattered all the way down and to a lesser degree all the way back. Palfrey endeavored to lead the singing, at least that's what he called it.

On arrival at High River we finally got the Calgary gang rounded up and got going. Some 15 neophytes signified their willingness to tread the rocky road and once on the way weren't allowed to turn back. "Spark-plug" Morrison and Palfrey forgot the most important part of our equipment but we managed to get along without it. Brothers from Vulcan, High River and Calgary went through.

On the return trip to Calgary one of the candidates, Sam. Laut, played Indian and crawled around on the luggage racks. Big Chief Dauncey took away his shootin' iron finally. The bullets used by Sam Laut were of the liquid kind and one backfired on him. Sam. Gordon and McDannold kept bothering everyone in the back of the bus on the way home and wouldn't let Sam. Marcellus sleep.

Our thanks to the Rebekahs for the nice supper they provided, and our apologies for the delay in getting to the table.

I'd like to offer a word of explanation to the Samaritans' wives. The reason we were so late in getting home was that the bus had engine trouble.

Sam. George and Sharman have been in the hospital and at time of writing are coming along fine. Sam. Sharman is at home now, and we wish them both a speedy recovery.

The whist drive sponsored by the Samaritans and Zuannas was a huge success and a real good time was had by all. Sam. Harvey's luck must be running out as he didn't win a turkey. Another thing of note was that Sam. Doc Bertrand went home early, which is very unusual for him. Sam. Brandt and Dauncey worked hard that afternoon setting up the tables and carrying down chairs. Sam. Dauncey carries passengers in his car but no turkeys.

I don't know what Sam. McGaw does these days, as I was up at his rug emporium the other day and all he had was a few straw mats in stock. Probably he puts in his time weaving the straw for the mats.

I can't think of any more dirt to dish up so I guess I'll call it quits.

Yours with a mile of smiles.—D.S.

Hillhurst Lodge Has Christmas Tree

"Quote" Certain people would like to know why the scribe of No. 1 rates the front page for his write up. "End of Quote." The above is not necessarily the views of the writer but they could be.

If the following write up from Hillhurst Lodge No. 46, Calgary, is not up to par with previous ones, please excuse it as I'm pinch-hitting for F.W.H. and I'm not in his class so far as journalism is concerned. Fred is in the hospital and has had an operation but is coming along fine. He hopes to be out soon and is counting the days till he gets home. He doesn't expect to go back to work till after Christmas. Fred is one of those fellows who delivers your letters and parcels and he really picked a good time, as now he'll miss the Christmas rush. I wouldn't go so far as to say that he did it intentionally, but it looks a bit suspicious.

Bro. McMillan's wife won the consolation prize at the Samaritans' and Zuannas' whist drive, so Bro. McMillan will have some sweets for Christmas.

Our annual Christmas tree was held Dec. 20 for the kiddies. The kiddies get a big kick out of this affair every year, and so do a lot of the big kids.

The social committee put on a real bang-up affair on November 29 with their quiz show and dance. At our last meeting they turned in a nice surplus.

I don't know if Bro. Palfrey will ever get his job finished or not. He's been working on a project for several months now and I don't know if he's any nearer the solution than when he started. From all accounts he's quite a ladies' man and should be able to do better with the Rebekahs than he's been doing. How about it, Eddie?

It was with deep regret that we learned of the passing of Bro. "Doc" Chapelle. Doc was not a member of No. 46, but was quite a frequent visitor and any time we were stuck for someone in any of the degrees all we had to do was give him a buzz and he was right there. I think that he knew the subordinate and Encampment rituals by heart. With his passing a true and loyal friend was lost to the order. Our sympathies are extended to the loved ones he left behind.

We were glad to welcome back to the fold Bro. Geo. Epstein, who has been overseas in the army and says that he'll be with us from now on.

Well, brothers, guess this is all for this time, and please overlook any errors or omissions in the above.—D.S.

New Officers Chosen St. George's Lodge

At the regular meeting of St. George's Lodge No. 39, Calgary, on Nov. 19, we had 121 members from various lodges—Alberta No. 1, Hillhurst No. 46, Bow Valley No. 89, Also a brother from Halifax and one from Saskatoon were introduced to the officers and members.

St. George's Lodge conferred the initiatory degree on fourteen candidates of Bow Valley Lodge No. 89, which was enjoyed by all present. The candidates were greatly impressed with the degree work.

Following the degree work, refreshments were served, pork and beans for the visitors, also cake for the other members present.

On Monday night, November 26, election of officers took place, with about fifty members present. We also had a Brother Ogilvie, from Agassiz, B.C., visiting us.

In the month of December we are holding our annual turkey whist drive and Christmas tree for the members' children, also for members of Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 12.—J.C.

Grand Officers at Millet Degree Meet

Millet Lodge No. 145 is gradually coming back and slowly gaining membership, although it is hard going. We had nominations recently and also two applications for membership.

These two were taken to Ponoka Lodge No. 11 on the night of November 12, and given the initiation by Ponoka degree team. There were six brothers from Millet Lodge also attended and after the degree work was finished, Ponoka Lodge put up a real good doughnut and coffee lunch.

On November 28, we had a very good meeting and Ponoka Lodge No. 11 came on time. They put on the first degree for our two candidates and brought one with them.

There were brothers present from Wetaskiwin and also several different lodges in Edmonton, Nos. 47, 30 and 41.

Quite a few Grand Lodge officers were present, namely, C. Plant, Grand Guardian Grand Encampment; T. W. Hickmore, P.G.P., P.G.R.; O. S. Martin, P.G.M., P.G.P., P.G.R.; G. H. Sorenson, P.G.M., P.G.R.; Jas. Masterson, D.D.G.M., District No. 28; M. G. Grandlund, D.D.G.M., District No. 25; A. C. Woodard, P.G.P., D.G.M.

After the work and business was finished, a very sumptuous luncheon of doughnuts, baked beans, sandwiches and gallons of good coffee were served to 48 brothers.

Ponoka Lodge No. 11 invited Millet Lodge to take their candidates down to their lodge for second degree on the night of December 10, and Millet will be there.—J.C.W.

Deputy G.M. Makes Visit to Hughenden

At the regular meeting of Century Lodge No. 100, Hughenden, on Monday, November 11, Bro. A. C. Woodard, Deputy Grand Master for Alberta, paid an official visit. Having arrived in Hughenden the night before, Bro. Woodard spent the day visiting with the local members around town and talking Odd Fellowship to likely prospects.

In the evening a number of brethren from Czar came down to help swell the crowd. After the meeting had been opened by the Noble Grand, Bro. Petts, P.D.D.G.M., Bro. R. Holmberg was welcomed back from overseas.

Bro. Woodard and D.D.G.M. Bro. Richards were introduced and given the honors of the Order.

The regular business having been transacted, the visitors addressed the gathering, the D.G.M. giving a very instructive talk on "Odd Fellowship."

Following the meeting luncheon was served and some interesting discussions took place around the tables, the brethren dispersing about midnight, having spent a very enjoyable evening.—W.B.

Colorful Muster Ceremony Planned

This Canton, Calgary No. 2, Patriarchs Militant, is preparing for their colorful muster ceremony early in January. Four applications have been received and more will be forthcoming. As a number of the prospective chevaliers are from outside the city, the degree will be arranged for a Saturday night. This will also give the usual contingents from Lethbridge, Medicine Hat, High River, and perhaps Edmonton, an opportunity to take part in or witness the ceremony.

The welcome that this Canton had hoped to give to one of its chevaliers, Grand Patriarch W. Blair, Lethbridge, was dampened a bit. The municipal elections had everyone either working or in a dither, and Bill arrived on election night.

The new officers all have a Lethbridge background. Capt. Gordon Hamilton and Ensign Perc. Andrews are recent imports from the south, while Lieut. Johnny Unsworth has been making the trip from the southern city for years and never missed a meeting. An active and profitable year is anticipated.

Odd Fellows Service Board in Edmonton

We would like to remind all lodges, especially country lodges, that there is an Odd Fellows Service Board in Edmonton. It has been brought to our attention (although no complaints have been made, that in some cases where a brother from a country lodge has come to Edmonton for hospital care and has gone home again without having had as many visits from brothers of the city lodges as he might have had, simply because we did not know that he was here. If the country lodges will please notify Bro. Alex D. Campbell, secretary-treasurer of the Service Board, at 11501 93rd St., or phone 72477, when any brother is coming to Edmonton for hospital care, they will be assured of his receiving visitations.—R.F.

G.M. and Deputy Are Welcomed at Killam

"Patience is a virtue." Our lodge, Killam No. 76, has waited patiently for eight long years for a visit from the Grand Master, and lo and behold, both the Grand Master and the Deputy Grand Master visited us during the last two weeks. The Grand Master was here on the night of November 8, and the Deputy just a week later. It never rains but it pours.

Although we had to call special meetings for both visits, the brothers turned out remarkably well, considering the weather. There were nearly 30 brothers present at each meeting and the addresses given by the Grand Lodge officers were well worth hearing. The Grand Master gave us an account of the state of the order in the province, and Brother Woodard gave a splendid talk, taking for his subject, "They Rebuilt the Walls, for Every Man Had a Mind to Work." He pointed out that if every member of our order had a mind to work the gaps created in the walls of Odd Fellowship during the last twenty years would soon be mended.

During the Grand Master's visit our lodge conferred the initiatory degree on five new candidates, and we put the same ones through the first degree for the Deputy Grand Master. This class just makes 21 members added to our numbers during the year 1945. Can any lodge beat this?

Our aim is to make it 25 for the year and we have a start on the last four now. Come on, brothers, let us put Odd Fellowship in Alberta back where it rightly belongs.—D.V.Y.

Former G.M. Ill but Condition Improved

Brother J. H. Cousens, P.G.M., has been ill for the past three weeks, but is improving. Bro. Cousens has been a member of this lodge, Bellevue No. 118, Bellevue, Alberta, for over thirty years and is a winner of the Grand Sire's "Medal of Merit." This brother is an Odd Fellow any lodge can be proud of having as a member and I know all the officers and members of Grand Lodge will be pleased to wish him a speedy recovery.—N.S.

News From Saskatchewan Lodges

Lodge Entertains Forty Returned Men

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Davidson, Sask., entertained the returned servicemen at a sumptuous banquet on Friday, December 7. About 70 sat down, 40 of whom were returned men of Davidson and district. The tables were artistically decorated in the Rebekah colors of pink and green. The ladies wore fancy caps and aprons to match and they looked very attractive.

Bro. E. Olding acted as chairman and on behalf of the Odd Fellows welcomed the men back home and proposed the toast of the evening to them. Bro. F. Perring responded, stating that we were as pleased to see the men back home as they were to be with us once again and reminded us not to forget those who could not be with us at the present time and those who would never return.

Bro. F. F. Bates of Saskatoon proposed the toast to the ladies. Bro. J. Van Haerlem responded, explaining the Rebekahs were lady Odd Fellows and thanked them for the time and trouble they had gone to in making this evening such a splendid success.

Grand Master Bro. John Macklem, of Saskatoon, was the guest speaker of the evening. He thought it was a great gesture of the Odd Fellows of Davidson to entertain the returned men. He outlined the principles of Odd Fellowship and urged every young man to join some fraternal organization as soon as possible, while they had the opportunity.

Bro. J. Sellars spoke on behalf of the servicemen, after which there was a roll call of members, one of whom had been in the order for almost 50 years. The servicemen and their friends were then invited to dance in the Town Hall, which was sponsored by the Rebekahs. The hall was packed.—Francis F. Bates, District Secretary.

Veteran Odd Fellow Called by Death

The funeral service for Bro. W. D. Scampton, 62, who died in a Saskatoon hospital November 23, was held in Saskatoon on November 26. Bro. Scampton succumbed from an illness of four months.

Bro. Walter Douglas Scampton was born in London, Eng., in 1883. In 1909 he was married to Gertrude Shipley, together coming to Canada in 1911. Bro. Scampton was employed by Ontario Hydro Electric at Palmerston, Ont. It was at Palmerston that Bro. Scampton became acquainted with Odd Fellowship, joining Gordon Lodge in 1918. Coming west in 1924 he kept his membership in Palmerston lodge intact, year after year, until transferring to Watrous Lodge June 5, 1944. While Bro. Scampton was not a member of our lodge for a very long period of time, he favored us with his presence as often as he could be spared from his work. We, as Odd Fellows, feel grateful that among its membership throughout Canada and the world at large, men of such sterling qualities as our late Bro. Scampton so possessed, have retained their membership during their life's span for the benefit of mankind by striving to promote Friendship, Love and Truth. The deepest sympathy of the officers and members of Watrous Lodge No. 63 goes to Mrs. Scampton, and daughter, Mrs. J. H. Barclay, in their recent loss of a husband and father.

I have noticed in the last issue of our fair magazine belated attacks against my good friend Carl Harris of Elstow lodge, for not having any writeups lately. Come on, Carl, let us "northerners" show up Bro. Louis Neal and his "southern dust bowlers" that we can match anything he has to offer to the world. Why, even "Grandpappy" Bates of Saskatoon, can still sling a cheery tune of news when he gets warmed up to the task. News from our fair province of Saskatchewan shows more interest with each issue of the Odd Fellow, and that's what we want—to show the good province of Alberta that we have some live wire lodges next door to them who are ready to tell the world about their activities. Degree practise is heavy on our agenda now as we have five prospectives to start in with in the new year.

To the editor and all our readers, a very merry Christmas and continued success in Odd Fellowship in 1946.

Fathers and Sons at Chicken Supper

On Friday, November 23, Lodge No. 67, Saskatoon Odd Fellows, sponsored a Father and Son chicken supper in the lower hall, at which about 100 were present, Bro. R. Bray acting as chairman. The floral decorations were supplied by Bro. Frank Dowding.

After supper about 125 met in the lodge room and community singing was enjoyed, Sister M. Cowan officiating as pianist, after which a very enjoyable program was presented as follows:

Acrobatics, Miss Gloria Woodcock; male quartet under the direction of Mr. P. F. Cope-land; club swinging team from Bedford Road Collegiate; sleight of hand, Mr. Gam; whistling solo, Mr. S. E. Fitzgerald; violin solo, Master R. Thelander; vocal solos, Mrs. Willis and Miss McAfee; readings, Bro. F. A. McGill.

The chairman welcomed the sons and visitors and hoped it would not be long before we had the pleasure of meeting them again. He also extended his thanks for such an enjoyable evening to the artists and the committee in charge, which consisted of Bros. R. Bray, M. H. McAfee, P. Dawson and J. Stephenson, and the efficient assistance given by Sister and Brother T. E. Jennings.

On Wednesday, November 6, fourteen brothers from Saskatoon visited Elstow Lodge No. 138. After a real country chicken supper we met in the lodge room and had a very enjoyable meeting. Carl Harris, P.G.M., said they were expecting some new candidates in the very near future.—F. F. Bates.

Veteran Officer of Sask. Lodge Dies

Jas. J. Page, chairman of the Home Fund Trustee Board of the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan, passed away in the Whitewood hospital on November 14. The funeral was held in Kennedy on November 16.

Jas. Page was born in London, England, February 14, 1873, and came to Canada in 1895, settling at Mooromin, Sask. In 1897 he was married to Elizabeth Faulkner of Moosomin, who predeceased him in 1938.

Settling in Kennedy in the year 1906, the year the railway came in, he was one of the pioneers of that district.

Brother Page was initiated into the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in February, 1906. Becoming a member of Moosomin Lodge No. 2, he transferred his membership to Kennedy Lodge No. 49 when it was instituted in 1909. He helped organize that lodge and was one of the charter members. He also helped organize Kennedy Rebekah Lodge No. 105, being a charter member of that lodge. A loyal and faithful worker in the subordinate lodge, he held the position of financial secretary at the time of his death, a position that he had held for the last thirty-five years. He was also active in the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan and regularly attended the sessions. He served that organization in the offices of Grand Conductor, Grand Marshal, Chief Veteran of the Veterans organization, and later was elected Home Fund trustee.

The Odd Fellows' funeral service was conducted by Kennedy Lodge No. 49, Kennedy Rebekah Lodge No. 105 attended in a body. Grand Lodge officers in attendance were the Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Secretary and two of the Home Fund trustees.

Celebrate Lodge's 25th Anniversary

Following the regular meeting of Brilliant Rebekah Lodge No. 80, Cut Knife, Sask., November 27, the members, their families and friends gathered at a social evening to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the lodge.

This lodge was formed on Nov. 19, 1920, and of the original members only seven were present at the celebration. They are Sister H. Barr, Sister B. Kingston, Sister C. Dunn, Bro. H. Dunn, Bro. D. H. Munsell, Bro. H. Basted and Bro. R. L. Vance. Of the original members only four have continuous membership, and they are Sister H. Barr, Sister F. Ross, Sister C. Dunn and Bro. H. Dunn. We now have a membership of 47 and an average attendance of 22.

The evening was spent playing bridge. The bridge prizes were won by Mr. S. Phillips, Sister P. Garland, Mr. W. Gallivan, and Sister C. Dunn.

After the bridge there was a short program. Sister B. Kingston read parts of the original minutes. Sister H. Barr, as recording secretary, and Sister C. Dunn as warden, called the original roll. Sister C. McKee, C. Phillips, R. Scoular and H. Wettlaufer, dressed in "Gay Nineties" costumes sang several old songs with actions. Sister E. Macfarlane gave a vocal solo.

The feature of the dainty lunch was a three-tier anniversary cake beautifully decorated by Mrs. W. Beaudry and made by Sister H. Barr.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Our recording secretary for 1946 is Sister Kathleen Coulter.—M. J. Carr.

Regional Meeting Held at Melville

Owing to bad roads and weather the afternoon meeting was dispensed with as many of those attending were late in arriving.

A banquet was held in the basement of the United Church for those in attendance at 6 p.m. There was a good attendance.

At 7:30 p.m., the meeting was called to order by the officers of Melville Lodge No. 48. The meeting was then turned over to Brother G. S. Sundstrom, Deputy Grand Master, who acted as chairman.

Brother Craft, of Melville, was appointed secretary.

The Grand Master, Brother John Macklem, spoke on behalf of the Grand Lodge, and gave an explanation of the field man work that is being conducted by the Grand Lodge.

Brother J. H. Kessler, P.D.D.G.M., gave an address on the improvement of district meetings. His address was very inspiring as he had many good suggestions to offer.

At the conferring of the initiatory degree by Yorkton Lodge No. 9, three candidates received the degree.

An explanation of the financial structure of the Grand Lodge was given by Brother G. W. Dawson, Grand Treasurer.

An address on the Home Fund of the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan was given by Brother F. D. Gray, P.G.R., Grand Secretary. Brother Gray, in a splendid address, explained the Home Fund from the time it was started at the first sessions of the Grand Lodge, and stressed the need for an Odd Fellows' home in this jurisdiction.

Midnight lunch was served by Melville Lodge No. 48.

District Officers Named at Saskatoon

The annual meeting of the Ada Neal District No. 10 was held in the I.O.O.F. hall, Saskatoon. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Helen Greggain, who stressed the importance of working together. This was responded to by Miss Ena Anderson, of Prince Albert.

The delegates each read a report of work done in their particular lodge during the year. Each had done considerable war work and had remembered the men and women in the armed services with parcels and cigarettes.

At the close of the afternoon session, a banquet was greatly enjoyed by 75 Rebekahs. Mrs. W. Thomson led community singing, accompanied by Mrs. M. Cowan at the piano.

In the evening the Rebekah Degree was beautifully conferred by the officers of Queen Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 5, Saskatoon.

The Assembly President, Mrs. Jean Sadler, gave an inspiring address. She divided her talk into three parts: "How to become a better Rebekah, Goodness and Kindness, and Courage." She said that it must be demonstrated to the enemy that the world was big enough for all and that all must live together like brothers.

The new district officers elected are: President, Miss Ena Anderson, Prince Albert; vice-president, Mrs. Edna Pendleton, Colonsay; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Potter, of Prince Albert.

It was decided to hold the district meeting next year at Prince Albert on the first Monday in October.

By Mrs. Dorothy E. Hoover,
Sec.-Treas., Ada Neal.

Watrous Lodge Has Enjoyable Evening

The officers and members of Watrous, Saskatchewan, I.O.O.F. lodge were hosts to their wives at a social evening held in the lodge rooms on Tuesday evening, Nov. 27, with approximately 60 present.

The evening opened with ten hands of whist. Prize winners were: Ladies, 1, Mrs. J. H. MacLachlan; consolation, Mrs. A. C. Rishel; gents, 1, Earl Stacey; consolation, Erwin Madden.

A novel contest followed, concerning names of lodge members, which resulted in lots of fun for all. The contest was won by Harold Scoville and Mabel Sather.

Dancing then held sway until 11 p.m., during which Mrs. Erwin Madden favored with a piano solo and Mrs. W. H. Hewlett gave two very interesting readings. Prior to supper another contest gave all a chance to put on their thinking caps again, finally ending up with Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Beavers as winners. J. L. Reed handled the cards and John MacLachlan the dancing. Supper, provided by Les Forsyth, topped off a great evening of fun. Much credit for the entertainment is due the committee for a swell job.

REBEKAH ACTIVITIES

Rebekahs' President Christmas Message

Dear Members:

Christmas is at hand and another year is on the verge of the past.

May each and every one enjoy a very Merry Christmas.

There will be lonely hearts, I know. I trust that our Heavenly Father will bless and be a comfort to those who will have empty hearts and empty chairs at this time.

Let us work hard in the year ahead to make our order known for its friendship and kindness.

Strive to increase our membership in leaps and bounds in the year ahead.

The lodges have all done a wonderful work in the past, in giving of their time and money, so that others could have a touch of Christmas, too.

May God bless you in your work for the good of others.

In helping others we help ourselves with glad hearts in the thought, in that giving we have brought a little happiness to someone.

A very Merry Christmas to each and every one, and may the year ahead be filled with enthusiasm in the work of true Rebekah Odd Fellowship.

The Season's Greetings to all.

MINNIE GILKES, President,
Rebekah Assembly of Alberta.

Dominion Lodge 41 Has Sale and Tea

The annual sale of work and tea of Dominion Lodge No. 41, Lethbridge, is over and Sister Morden is wearing a smile that won't come off. Once again she has made a success of this event, and as usual says she won't handle it next year. . . . Let's hope she's only "kidding." Why, having Sister Morden arrange our sale of work is practically a foregone conclusion! Co-conveners with Sister Morden was Sister Helen McNab, and the work of these two cannot be too highly praised.

Donations were received from various out-of-town members and I'm sure they will understand if I don't mention them all here, but just say, "Thanks a lot," to Sister Annie Wilson, P.N.G., in Vancouver, and Sister Minnie Thompson, P.N.G., in Calgary.

Sister Jane Henderson who, like Sister Morden, always has the same responsibility, was in charge of the pantry table. Since things have been in short supply this has been entirely voluntary but this year was especially well laden.

Sister Julia Johnston was convener of the tea room and was capably assisted by our Vice Grand, Sister Elizabeth Allison, and Sister Eva Lowe.

Servitors during the afternoon were Sisters Evelyn Scott, Lucille Bambrick and Anna Plante.

Spray mums were used effectively as decorations for the individual tea tables which were kept busy all afternoon. Sister Amelia Cowell acted as treasurer.

Sister Gertrude Fansett and Nellie Dupen were kept busy selling tickets on the work bag which was won by Sister Annie Morris with ticket No. 2937.

Sister Ada Davis sold tickets on the lunch set and box of chocolates. Miss Margaret Crowe won the lunch set with ticket No. 103, while ticket No. 2982, held by Sister Florence Guild, won the chocolates.

Two children who happened to be in the hall at the time made the drawings. They were Miss Kathleen Grunewald and Master Billy Oswald.

At the work table Sister Morden and Sister McNab were assisted by Sister Rhena McVean, while Sister Isabelle Nuttall assisted wherever she was most needed at the time.

It was grand to be able to welcome Sister Elizabeth Douglas, of Milk River, and Sister Mary Oswald, of Warner. As Sister Douglas was heard to observe, "Some people drive a long way for a cup of tea."—R.M.

Plans Discussed For Annual Dinner

The October meeting of Triple Link P.N.G.'s Club No. 4, Medicine Hat, was held at the home of Sister Lefever. The president, Sister Mida Gordon, presiding. The report on the card party was read and proceeds amounting to $9.60 were turned in to the funds. A vote of thanks was given to Sister Cove for opening her home.

A bridge party was arranged for at the home of Sisters G. and M. Gordon on November 2.

On November 16, the club met at the home of Sister May. The death of Sister Le Page was reported, also Sister MacFarlane's mother had passed away, and brother-in-law of Sister May. The card party was called off.

The annual dinner was discussed, and Friday, Dec. 14, was decided on, if suitable arrangements could be made at the Hotel Cecil. Sisters Miller and Slater were appointed to the committee. Sisters G. and M. Gordon invited the members to a social evening at their home, after the dinner, which was accepted. Lunch was served by the hostess.—E.M.

Assembly President On Official Visit

At the regular meeting of Naomi Lodge No. 12, Calgary, our president, Sister Minnie Gilkes, made her official visit which was very much enjoyed by all.

The degree was very capably conferred on three new members, Sisters Evelyn Molyneaux, Shirley Molyneaux and Vera Witwer. Welcome to Naomi, Sisters!

We would also like to welcome Sister Baldwin from Ruth Rebekah Lodge No. 5, Medicine Hat, to our fold by transfer.

We are all looking forward to our Roll Call and banquet to be held in January. Sister Elsie Taylor is to be our convener.

A gift was presented to our president by Sister Duckworth.

Visits Exchanged at Red Deer Meets

Several months have elapsed since we last sent an account of activities at Sincerity Lodge No. 38, Alix, Alberta. In that time we have lost several of our members due to their removal to other districts. We shall miss them a great deal, but we know that "our loss is another's gain."

Five sisters from Sincerity No. 38 motored to Red Deer on Monday evening in sub-zero weather to attend the District Meeting of District No. 9. There was an exceptionally good attendance at both the Rebekah district meeting and the subordinate lodge district meeting which was held in conjunction.

The meeting was opened by Alberta No. 77 and under Good of the Order was turned over to Sister Irene Bailes, D.D.P., who conducted the meeting in a very capable manner. Reports were read from various lodges of the district which showed activity along all lines of their work.

It was a great pleasure to meet such a large delegation from Helping Hand Lodge, of Bowden, who were accompanied by Sister Piggett, D.D.P. of District No. 10. During the evening a delegation from the Subordinate District meeting consisting of Bro. Fox, Grand Master; Bro. White, Past Grand Patriarch; Bro. Woods, of Penhold, and Bro. Howard, of Bowden, visited us. Each of the brothers spoke a few words to the sisters. We were especially pleased to have the Grand Master talk to us. Later on a return visit was made by D.D.P. Sister Piggett, of Bowden, Sister Andrews of Alix, Sister Dennis of Mirror, and Sister Barrill of Red Deer, as a delegation bearing greetings from their meeting.

Under election of officers, Sister Minnie Drynan of Lakeview No. 110, Mirror, was recommended as the incoming D.D.P. of District No. 9., with Sister Dennis as District Secretary.

After the closing of the meeting by Alberta No. 77, a very delightful banquet was served in the basement. All came away feeling that it had been a most enjoyable and profitable evening.—C.W.

Appoint District Deputy President

Prairie Rose Rebekah Lodge held their regular meeting on November 12, in the I.O.O.F. hall.

This being the District Meeting, members from Rainbow Lodge, Beiseker, and Golden Sheaf Lodge, Three Hills, were in attendance. The members from Three Hills came down by bus that evening and returned the next day. These members were entertained by members of Prairie Rose Lodge.

Sister Reddekopp, District Deputy President, took charge of the District Meeting, and Sister Arnold, of Golden Sheaf Lodge, was appointed District Deputy President for the coming year.

Each lodge constituted a part for the good of the order.

After the business being concluded a very dainty lunch was served, buffet style, and enjoyed by all. Almost 50 members were present.

—Gertrude Lee, P.N.G.

Season's Greetings

Before there is another issue of the Alberta Odd Fellow, the Christmas festivities will have ended and we shall be entering upon a new year.

In these circumstances, I take this opportunity of extending the season's greetings to all our brethren and sisters engaged in the work of Odd Fellowship.

This is our first peacetime Christmas since the end of the war. This is the time that we all looked forward to so anxiously during the dark days of the conflict and more so when it was apparent to all that victory was at hand. Truly then it should be a period of joyous thanksgiving.

The new year will offer greater opportunities to all. Reconstruction and rehabilitation will be foremost and here the lodges of this order will have a splendid opportunity to play their full part.

I am confident that the new year will see the order forging ahead to bigger objectives in this province. In this move, the Alberta Odd Fellow will engage to the full in promoting the growth of the order.

In embarking upon the new year, we can feel confident that in observing and promoting the principles of Odd Fellowship, we are doing our best to make better conditions for all.

EDITOR'S NOTE

This issue of the Alberta Odd Fellow shows a change in the composition. A new size of type is used. This is one of the most modern available and it also has the added advantage of providing at least 25 per cent more space than formerly for reading material. This change is in line with the management's policy of improving this publication in every way possible.

Bowden Is Scene of District Meeting

The annual district meeting of District No. 10 was held at Bowden on Tuesday, Nov. 20, in the I.O.O.F. Hall. There were 22 Bowden sisters present, and five sisters from Alberta Rebekah Lodge No. 77, Red Deer. Among these was Sister Baile, D.D.P. of District No. 9.

The meeting was conducted by Sister Elva Piggott, D.D.P. A warm welcome to all members and visiting sisters was given by Sister Doris Adair, acting Noble Grand, which was graciously answered by Sister Piggott.

A minute's silence was observed in memory of the departed sisters and brothers, after which Sister Piggott read a short verse in tribute to their memory.

Credentials of representatives were read and found favorable. Owing to unavoidable circumstances, sisters from Justice Rebekah Lodge No. 62, Crossfield, were unable to attend.

Report of Justice No. 62 was read and showed that it had a very good year in lodge work. Report of Helping Hand No. 74 was read and also showed a very good year's work.

A quizz was conducted by Sister Piggott on questions from the constitution and ritual. This was won by Sister Annie Woodall, the prize being a Rebekah pin.

The Noble Grand read an article on the correct procedure of presenting a motion.

The candle lighting ceremony was very nicely performed by sisters of Helping Hand, which was enjoyed by all, also the banner drill.

Sister Evelyn Lilley, of Justice No. 62, was elected as D.D.P. of District No. 10. Sister Thelma O'Neil, of Justice No. 62, was elected as secretary-treasurer of District No. 10.

After the meeting a delicious lunch was served by Helping Hand sisters—E.B.

Select Officers For Ensuing Year

The meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary, Patriarchs Militant, Canton No. 2, Calgary, was well attended with our president, Lady Mace, in the chair. We have had the usual amount of illness among our members, but we are glad to report that they are all well again and able to be out.

We mustered in one member, Lady Blair, of Dominion No. 41, during the year.

We also realized the sum of $19 by selling chances on a doily and a pair of pillow cases, both being donated by Lady Richards.

We had a nice visit from Lady Browning, the president of the L.A.P.M., Edmonton, which we enjoyed very much.

On special dispensation we held our election of officers for 1946 at our November meeting. The following were elected:

President, Lady Lowe; vice-president, Lady McLeod; secretary, Lady Allison, 1919 Park Road, Calgary; treasurer, Lady Richards.

Cloverleaf Lodge Now on Honor Roll

Cloverleaf Rebekah Lodge No. 37, Vulcan, is completing one of the most successful years since its institution. Much credit for this success is due to our Noble Grand, degree master and sitting officers for the increased membership, increased attendance, goodwill and fellowship.

Thirty-five visitors have attended our lodge during the past year, and our average attendance has been 26 members per meeting.

A total of 30 members have received the degree from our captain and staff. Of these 11 sisters and five brothers have joined our fraternity and 14 members have joined Rose Leaf Lodge of Milo. Our membership increased with one sister and two brothers joining by re-instatement and two sisters by transfer. The lodge regrets the loss of one member by death and three by withdrawal. The net increase is 17 members.

Cloverleaf Lodge takes pride in being on the Honor Roll, which was earned through increased membership, collection of dues and no suspensions. The framed certificate now adorns the wall of our lodge room.

Our Jr. Past Grand represented this lodge at the Assembly sessions held in March of this year, bringing a complete report of the Assembly activities. We were fortunate in having a visit from the Assembly vice-president, Sister L. Goodman, who gave an inspiring talk which was beneficial to our lodge.

The degree team and installation team motored to Milo and assisted in re-organizing Rose Leaf Lodge No. 109. At that time an effort was made to get Lomond lodge re-organized, but as yet no success can be reported.

During the year the lodge gave donations to the Red Cross and to the Memorial Swimming pool and participated in the Ninth Victory Loan with the purchase of a $50 bond.

Consort Rebekahs Welcome President

At their regular meeting on October 23, Mizpah Rebekah Lodge No. 53, Consort, was honored by a visit from Sister Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly. During the evening the degree was exemplified, after which Sister Gilkes gave a very inspiring talk.

Sister May Wellings, D.D.P., gave an outline of the work done by Mizpah, reporting that the sum of $957 had been raised since 1941 for the Red Cross Society, that a yearly donation of $10 was made to the Woods Christian Home and $5 to the Community Club for overseas parcels, also that $150 had been invested in Victory Bonds.

At the close of lodge a dainty lunch was served. The table was centred with pink flowers, flanked with pink and green candles. At this time Sister Gilkes was presented with a small gift as a souvenir of her visit.

The pleasing personality of Sister Gilkes made it a pleasure as well as an honor for the sisters who entertained her.—G.M.H.

Receives Veteran Jewel from Father

The regular meeting of Dominion Rebekah Lodge No. 41, Lethbridge, on November 22, featured the conferring of the degree, Sister Margaret Martin and Bro. James MacLean being the new members. It has been mentioned before in these columns how much "41" enjoys these family affairs. Bro. MacLean's wife, daughter and sister are already members.

It was with regret that a withdrawal card was granted Sister Isabelle Shaw.

A surprise came during Good and Welfare when Sister Lucille Bambrick, P.N.G., was called to the front and her father, Bro. John Easton, D.D.G.M., presented her with her veteran jewel. We might add that Bro. Easton got quite excited and couldn't remember his daughter's name. In acknowledging the presentation, Sister Bambrick said it shouldn't have been a surprise to her, as she might have known something was going to happen when both her mother and father were present. How about surprising her again, Bro. Easton, and coming often?

Bro. Murray Saunders, P.G.M., always a welcome visitor, was present and spoke briefly.

Bro. Duncan McNab is a hospital patient following an operation. His condition is "as good as can be expected," whatever that means.

We note in the "Odd Fellow" that Sister O. Laughlin, of Hanna, has moved to Lethbridge. If one of the sisters of Colfax No. 51 will send us this sister's address we will be glad to visit her and invite her to our meetings.

Bro. R. B. Morden has just received word of the death of his eldest daughter. Helen was formerly a member of Dominion. She had made her home in the United States for a number of years and transferred some time ago. The sympathy of all is extended to Bro. Morden, Sister Oswald and Sister Crofts in their bereavement.

Sister Eunice Hodgins is at last moving to Calgary. Her husband received his transfer late in July and since September has been living in a hotel and vainly looking for housing accommodation. Every whisper of a house sent Sister Hodgins off to the northern city only to return empty handed. She even threatened to parade up and down 8th Avenue shouting the Rebekah word of distress, but fortunately has been relieved of all her worries. By the time this appears Sister Hodgins will be almost settled and trying to figure where she's going to put all the sisters who have promised to visit her next March.

It is with regret that we report the sudden passing of Mrs. Zelma Stenbeck, mother-in-law of Sister Ruth Stenbeck, who had been making her home with Ruth. The sympathy of all is extended to Sister Stenbeck, especially as her husband is still overseas.

Sympathy is also extended to Sister Pauline Wilson whose mother-in-law has passed away after a lengthy illness.—R.M.

Unity Rebekahs 26 Plan for New Year

At the last regular meeting of Unity Rebekah Lodge, Edmonton, held November 27, Mrs. Beryl Mullit was admitted to membership by initiation, before a goodly attendance of members and visiting sisters.

During the meeting held on October 23, Sister Nell Bradley was presented with her veteran jewel. Sister Hannah Graham made the presentation, and in a few well-chosen words spoke of her lengthy service and value to the lodge, and of the high esteem in which Sister Bradley is held by all her associates.

The War Services Unit met recently at the home of Sister Alberta Wilson to pack Christmas parcels for the returned servicemen in the hospital. There were fifteen parcels, all wrapped in gay Christmas paper and each contained one pair of hand-knitted socks, shaving cream, tooth powder, razor blades, writing paper and envelopes, and chocolate bars.

During the evening the future of the unit was discussed, and it was unanimously agreed that we continue our activities. It was felt there is still much to be done to assist the returned servicemen, especially those who are confined to hospitals for indefinite and lengthy periods as evidenced by the many appeals still being made for assistance. The unit therefore proposes to carry on, but in re-organizing, we will in future be known as the "Opportunists' Club." New Year activities will commence about the middle of January, and any interested members are cordially invited to attend.

Wishing all a very merry Christmas and a bright, happy and prosperous New Year.—C.E.H.

Plan Banquet for Returned Personnel

Sister Harman, N.G., represented Hope Lodge No. 33, Ponoka, at the memorial service November 11, by placing a poppy wreath in memory of those who lost their lives in World Wars I and II. The wreaths were later placed at the foot of the cross in the Soldiers' plot at the cemetery.

On November 22 a very successful Military Whist was held. First prize winners were Mr. and Mrs. Elofson, Mrs. Racher and Mr. Auten. Part of the proceeds was donated to the arena fund.

Plans were started for a banquet in honor of our returned brothers and sisters. This was to be held, if possible, on the Monday night of Ponoka's "Welcome Home Week."

The lodge extends its very best wishes for a happy married life to Sister Helen Hickmore, who is to be a December bride.

The lodge members sold Christmas cards in order to add a bit more to our funds.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all Rebekahs and Odd Fellows from Hope No. 33.—H.J.C.

Three Lodges Hold District Meetings

We had a very pleasant meeting on October 22, at Wildey Rebekah Lodge No. 107, Medicine Hat, and the sum of $35 was turned in from the rummage sale committee.

On Hallowe'en night, Sewing Circle No. 2 sponsored a Hallowe'en Ball which was very successful, and from their proceeds will donate 50 forks to the lodge.

At our regular meeting on November 12, we had planned to hold the district meeting of District No. 18, but the D.D.P., Sister Helen Orr, had to postpone it until the following meeting as so many of the sisters were unable to attend. Plans were discussed for the Christmas dance to be held during Christmas week. This had to be left over until a later meeting, until we know definitely if we can have the hall.

An application was received from a prospective member and an investigating committee appointed.

District meeting was held at our regular meeting on November 26. Sister Orr, D.D.P., planned a very interesting meeting, which was well attended by members of the three lodges, Ruth Lodge No. 5, Vega Lodge No. 97 of Redcliff, and Wildey Lodge No. 107. A ballot was taken on the application of Mrs. Esther Foulston, and this proved favorable.

Our new candidate was initiated at our regular meeting on December 10.

Election of officers then took place. Sister Thora Barrie was nominated for Noble Grand, Sister Emily Slater for Vice Grand, Sister Vera Dixon and Sister Helen Orr for recording secretary, Sister Betty Wight and Sister Clara Baird for financial secretary, Sister Isabelle Morrison and Sister Hazel Woolven for treasurer. The meeting closed in prescribed form, followed by a delicious lunch of chicken sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Sister Helen Orr and Sister Mabel Conner are in charge of selling Christmas cards, seals and paper, and they are doing an exceptionally fine job.

Four Lodges Give Annual Reports

Activities of Anoka Rebekah Lodge No. 21, Calgary, on Oct. 26 we initiated Sister Beefus into our beloved order. We all hope that she enjoys and benefits from our degree and order.

On Nov. 2, Sister Lamb, D.D.P., conducted the district meeting for District No. 13 during our regular meeting. Representatives of Esther No. 1, Naomi No. 13, Anoka No. 21 and Sandstone No. 83, presented their credentials and read reports of their lodges' activities for the past year. Sister M. Burrell, Anoka No. 21, exemplified the secret work in a very capable manner. The following members of Anoka No. 21, Sisters Blake, Templeton, Stewart, Walsh, Knudsen and Taylor exemplified the characters of the Rebekah degree under the direction of Sister May Clarke, Sister Amy Sayer presiding at the piano.

Sister Ada Day, Assembly secretary, read a paper on the advancement of our order. Sister Dawson, accompanied by several sisters from Sandstone No. 83, paid loving tribute to our flag.

Sister Gilkes spoke very nicely and praised the work done that night. Our faithful refreshment committee served tea and ice cream in the banquet room.

Our fall tea and sale of work was held on Thursday, Dec. 6.

Esther Rebekahs Fall Tea Success

Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 1, Calgary, held their annual fall tea and sale of work in their lodge room, I.O.O.F. Temple, on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 17, under the convensership of Sister E. Godfrey. The tea table was set with a lace cloth, a silver basket for centre piece, with pink baby mums.

The Many guests who called were received by the Noble Grand, Sister Annie Tait, Vice Grand, Sister Alberta Andrews, and Sister Jean Lamb, District Deputy President, District No. 13.

Sharing honors at the tea urns were Sister M. Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly; Sister R. Dawson, P.P., Sister A. Neilson, Sister L. Gadsby, Sister F. Pickard and Sister M. Lawrence.

Members of the lodge assisted as servers.

The sewing table, in charge of Sister M. Ashby, Sister A. Balmer, Sister E. Haskins, Sister P. Elliott and Sister M. Wesson, proved a great attraction, many useful and pretty articles being for sale. The home cooking table was in charge of Sister M. Brown.

Treasurers for the afternoon were Sister L. Pearson and Sister E. Therring.

The convener, in giving her report at the regular meeting of Esther Lodge No. 1 on Nov. 26, thanked all those members who had helped to make the tea such an outstanding success.

Sister K. Tait, P.N.G., moved a special vote of thanks to Sister Godfrey, who is always such a willing and capable worker. It is a pleasure for the members to work with her.—W.M.B.

Jewel 25, Rebekahs Tender Greetings

Sister E. Cawley and Sister R. Moffatt convened a double military whist which was held after the regular meeting of Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 25, Edmonton, on Nov. 15. Bro. A. Neumann very ably conducted the players at the thirteen tables through the moves, mix-ups and intricacies of the game. At the conclusion refreshments were served by the committee in charge. Prizes went to the following: Mrs. W. L. Gibson, Mrs. U. Hedburg, Mrs. J. Barber, Mrs. H. McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Greenslade, Mr. and Mrs. A. Neumann, Mr. and Mrs. L. Beecroft, Miss M. Beecroft, Mrs. Sturgeon.

With our first meeting in December over and the election of officers concluded, everyone is beginning to realize that Christmas is just about the next thing on the program to finish off a very busy but also a very worthwhile and never-to-be-forgotten year. As we look back on all the events that have crowded themselves into 1945 we are inspired, grateful and truly humble for faith and guidance to "carry on." We trust that in the year ahead we shall all feel more settled and able to give more of our time and efforts to things at hand that require attention.

Vice Grand Sister Clydie Douglas and her visiting committee have been very busy this past month or so, looking after our many members who have been on the sick list. However, most of them are now well on the road to recovery. We were all indeed pleased to welcome Bro. A. Browning back to our last meeting, and to see him looking so well after his long illness. Bro. Ferguson is also looking much better after a visit to the hospital. Jan. and Feb. can be bad to us, too!

We are pleased to hear that Sisters Booth and Edith Mitchell are also much better now, as well as Sisters Whitfield, McCall, Gardiner, Southworth and Hamilton.

Sister Blanche Johnson came back to visit at our last meeting after her sojourn in the C.W.A.C., but only for a short while. We learned that she was to be married early in December and will shortly afterwards make her home in Saskatoon. Our very sincere wishes for health, happiness and prosperity go with her in this new venture. Noble Grand Sister Greenslade presented Sister Johnson with a gift as a slight token of our love and best wishes.

Sister Mary Langdon, a member of Sandstone Rebekah Lodge No. 83, Calgary, was a visitor at our last meeting, and Sister Neumann, P.P., was asked to present her with a veteran Jewel which had been forwarded from her own lodge. Sister Neumann wished her much pleasure in wearing her jewel.

Sister Lake, P.P., introduced Sister Catherine Pedden, P.N.G., a visitor from Crescent Rebekah Lodge No. 50, Vancouver.

Sister Greenslade, Noble Grand, announced that we are again indebted to Norwood Lodge No. 41 for kindnesses in permitting the degree team to use the hall for practices after their meetings, and she hoped to discharge this debt with a Christmas tree, party and entertainment for No. 41 on December 20.

Officers and members of Jewel Rebekah Lodge join in wishing all Sister and Brother lodges the compliments of the season. "Best wishes for a very very Merry Christmas and prosperity in the New Year."—J.M.

Good Attendance at Sale and Tea

Members of Vega Rebekah Lodge No. 97, Redcliff, held a sale of fancy work and afternoon tea on Wednesday afternoon, October 24.

Sister Kellett, P.N.G., Sister Hill, P.N.G., and Sister Cooke presided at the daintily appointed tea table. The main table was centred by a large silver basket of flowers and tall tapers.

Although the weather was very cold we had a good attendance.

At the regular meeting of our lodge on November 7, we had initiation. The beautiful Rebekah degree was conferred on Mrs. Sarah Ann Dutton. After our meeting lunch was served to the members and a social hour was enjoyed.

We have still a few members on the sick list and we wish them a speedy recovery.

On Nov. 30, we were sorry to hear of the death of one of our members, Sister Emily Oakland. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family in their sad bereavement. The graveside service was conducted by Vega Rebekah lodge.

At our regular meeting held on Dec 5, we held the ceremony of the draping of our charter in memory of our late Sister Oakland. During this ceremony the hymn, "Beautiful isle of somewhere" was sung by the members present.

Annual Banquet Is High River Success

The month of November is a very busy month for Harmony Rebekah Lodge No. 11, High River. We are pleased to report we have two more initiations for December, with more applications coming through.

On November 20 the annual roll call and banquet was one of the largest social events of the two lodges in many years. Close to 300 brothers, sisters, husbands and friends enjoyed the congenial hospitality of the High River Rebekah and I.O.O.F. members.

Owing to the large membership, we decided for the first time to use both the lodge room and dining room to seat our friends, and committees of both lodges worked together.

The lodge room was beautifully decorated with Rebekah and I.O.O.F. colors. In the centre of the hall there was a beautiful white dove of peace holding a wreath of silver laurels over the three links of red poppies. This beautiful thought was for our sons and fathers and sisters who we must never forget.

The tables were also very beautiful and laden with good things to eat. Bro. G. Mack asked the blessing. After dinner everything was cleared away and we enjoyed one of the jolly concerts given by both lodges.

First our chairman, Bro. A. Collier, called on Bro. S. E. Wilson, N.G.G., who gave a hearty welcome to all. Bro. Wilson called Bro. C. Fox, G.M., who gave a very inspiring talk on the growth of Odd Fellowship in Alberta. We were happy indeed to welcome Bro. Fox and Sister Fox and trust we will see them soon again.

Bro. Wilson then welcomed Bro. W. E. Blair, G.P. We were indeed sorry Bro. Blair had been very unfortunate in travelling from Ponoka to High River and had to stand up all the way. However, he spoke feelingly of the high ideals of Odd Fellowship which made it possible to have such a gathering. Sister Blair had travelled as far as High River to meet her husband. She is a very charming woman.

The concert program was as follows: Chairman Bro. Collier congratulated the Rebekahs for their co-operation in making the banquet and concert such a fine event. Solo by Billy Windsor, accompanied by Bro. Pollard; play given by Lodge No. 22, "Len Hoskin Store," directed by Bro. Fry, and the cast included Bro. C. Howe, Bro. J. Horrell, Bro. Quenton, Bro. R. Le Barge, Bro. Myers. This play was very amusing, taking us back many years when gossip was more important than eats. Solo by Jean Gaunce, accompanied by Sister M. McMann; solo by Aline Galmer, accompanied by Sister McMann.

A Rebekah play titled "Hiring a Maid," directed by Sister A. Harvard, was well got up and lots of fun. The cast included Sister E. Fraser, as Mistress, and Sisters Weber, Bodny, D. Marshall, T. Gordon and Progon as maids. Great credit is due to all who entertained. The refreshment committee is also to be congratulated on the splendid dinner, not even forgetting our sick, for they sent dinners to hospital for Bro. Jim Fisk. We really did miss you, Jim, and hope you will soon be with us again. Dinners were also sent to Bro. and Sister Eyres, whom we hope will soon be well. This brother and sister, while not able to be with us, were remembered, and we do hope they enjoyed their dinner.

So ended a happy gathering. Dancing completed the program.

Foothill Rebekahs Elect New Officers

Foothill Rebekah Lodge, at Claresholm, sponsored a very successful card party on December 5. The proceeds amounted to $26.50.

The degree was conferred on Mrs. Kay Comisso on Nov. 20. There was a very good attendance.

The new officers elected at our December 4 meeting are as follows: Noble Grand, Mrs. Elsie Wilhite; Vice Grand, Mrs. Evelyn Matson; recording and financial secretary, Mrs. Agnes Pitt; treasurer, Mrs. Martha Donaldson.

President Greeted by Cavell Rebekahs

Cavell Rebekah Lodge, at Ryley, wish to report an interesting month. At the meeting on Nov. 21 the degree was conferred on Elda Solberg in Cavell's usual creditable manner.

At the meeting on Dec. 4, a very good attendance of sisters and brothers had the pleasure of entertaining our president. Her address was a source of inspiration to all, the subject being "Friendship," the first of the three links. If we have that, the love and truth are bound to follow.

Degree was again conferred, this time on Mary Pepper. At this meeting we were glad to welcome Bro. Ernest Brown, home from overseas.

Nominations were held for officers for the ensuing year. Sister Kitty Edwards was elected by acclamation as Noble Grand, and Sister Lavina Loade as Vice Grand. Sister Phyllis Ness was elected by acclamation as treasurer, and Sister Edith Solberg as secretary.

The evening closed with a social hour and an enjoyable lunch.

At the close of our regular meeting Nov. 6, the gavel was handed over to Sister Oslund, D.D.P., who then conducted the district meeting of District No. 4A. Sister Lawson and Sister Wallen were delegates to this meeting and Sister Lawson presented a very full and interesting report of the year's work. This report shows seven sisters gained by initiation during the year. There was a wide range of activities including two Bingos, a tag day, presentation of two P.N.G. jewels, sponsoring of Blood Donor Clinic, helping with the recent clothing drive.

The district meeting was very successful, but we missed the brothers who had motored to Edmonton to attend their own district meeting, especially Matt, as we depend on him for the water for coffee.—E.M.S.

Raise Funds From Series of Bridge

Here we are again, and Hello to everybody! This past month or so has been quite busy for Loughheed Rebekah Lodge No. 55, as we held a series of bridge tournaments to raise funds, with Pot-Luck teas after lodge.

On November 13, we put on the Seven Sister Degree for Mrs. Lillian Grandage, and on November 27 initiated two more candidates, Mrs. Roberta Riddock and Mrs. Ruth McCracken, and we have two more applications ready for our next meeting.

On October 25 ten of our members went to the District Meeting at Hardisty. We were all pleased that Sister Bonar was re-elected as D.D.P. for the coming year.

To all, a very Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.—C.W.

Closes Fall Series Of Whist Drives

The Harmony Club of Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 25, I.O.O.F., held the last in the series of whist drives this fall in the I.O.O.F. Temple, 112th Avenue and 95th Street, Edmonton, on Wednesday afternoon, December 5.

Thirteen tables were in play, and Sisters E. M. Penman, P.N.G., and Moffatt, P.P., convened. Sisters A. Baker, P.N.G., and Songhurst, P.N.G., received and welcomed the guests.

Prizewinners at whist were Sister D. F. Dinwoodie, Sister Burrows of No. 25 and Mrs. Earl Boudin. The aggregate and attendance prizes were won by Mrs. L. Wismer and Mrs. C. Ness, respectively. These were drawn by little Evelyn Wallbank.—E.M.P.

District Meeting Is Held at Lethbridge

The annual district meeting of District No. 17 was held in Burgman hall, on Wednesday, Nov. 7, under the good of the order at the regular meeting of Faith Rebekah Lodge No. 93.

Introduced with Sister Stafford, D.D.P., were Sister E. Padgett, Assembly Warden, and Sister M. Watson, P.P. Sister L. Allison, P.N.G., and Sister Unsworth, P.N.G., introduced the visitors.

Noble Grand Sister Bartlett extended them a very hearty welcome.

Sister Stafford was escorted to the platform with Sister Padgett. The Noble Grand then gave the gavel to Sister Stafford, who extended a very cordial welcome to all present, and proceeded with the district meeting.

The following representatives answered the roll call: Sister A. Allison and Sister Unsworth, Faith No. 93; Sister A. Cowell and Sister H. Raye, Dominion No. 41. A very beautiful and impressive candle light ceremony was held, with all present repeating the obligation given by Sister Allison. This ceremony was in charge of Sister Eva Lowe, of Dominion No. 41. The sisters taking part were Sisters Nuttall, Blair, McVean, McNab, Bambrick and Stenback of Dominion No. 41, and Sister Goldie of Faith No. 93.

The reports of both lodges showed them to be in good financial standing, and actively engaged in increasing membership and lodge work generally. Sister Raye, Dominion No. 41, gave the secret work. Sister Watson, P.P., gave a paper on a transfer card. Sister Unsworth, Sister Sayers, Sister Morris and Sister Lowe of Faith No. 93, also gave papers on the different cards and certificates.

A duet was sung by Sister A. Davies and Sister A. Morris, which was very much enjoyed.

Sister M. Campbell of Dominion No. 41, was chosen to be recommended for D.D.P., and sister McVean, Dominion No. 41, was elected secretary-treasurer for the ensuing year.

Sister Padgett, Assembly Warden, spoke a few words, saying how much she had enjoyed the meeting. The business having come to a successful conclusion, the lodge members joined in singing one verse of "Blest be the tie that binds."

Sister Stafford, D.D.P., then handed the gavel back to Sister Bartlett, Noble Grand, who concluded the regular business in due form.

A dainty lunch was served by the committee of Faith Rebekah Lodge with Sister A. Allison as convener.—J.U.

Crippled Children's Fund Whist Drive

The annual Crippled Children's Fund whist drive was held again this year on Dec. 14 by Alberta Encampment No. 1, Calgary. The usual prizes were offered and competition was of the keenest type. As the tickets were sold throughout the province, the attractive turkey door prize had a good chance of going outside the city. A report of the winners will appear in next month's issue of the Odd Fellow.

The Crippled Children Fund was very dear to the heart of the late Past Grand Patriarch, R. W. Kellough. Since its inception, the fund has a very fine record of service rendered and is worthy of the support so far received. Commending the fund to your further help might be something like repeating the old adage, "charity begins at home." In other words, it is your fund and you take full credit for it. The local or closest Encampment or Grand Scribe Dave Wilson, Edmonton, will endeavor to answer any inquiries regarding the aims and objects of the fund.

On behalf of Alberta Encampment No. 1, the kindest season's greetings are extended.

The above picture was taken in the I.O.O.F. hall, Moose Jaw, on the occasion of the district meeting held there in October. As part of the program, the degree staff of Starlite Rebekah lodge was asked to exemplify the Rebekah degree, which was done very efficiently. Starlite is the youngest lodge in the Saskatchewan jurisdiction, having been instituted on Dec. 20, 1944, at Milestone.
